Re: Pennsylvania Vaccination Requirements - Religious Exemption

We, _____, being the legal guardians of _____ object to the immunization requirements as outlined by the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as defined in 28 PA. CODE CH.23 on the basis of a religious belief/strong moral or ethical conviction outlined in section § 23.84 Exemption from immunization.

Sincerely,

§ 23.84. Exemption from immunization. [28 PA. CODE CH.23]

(a) Medical exemption. Children need not be immunized if a physician or the physician's designee provides a written statement that immunization may be detrimental to the health of the child. When the physician determines that immunization is no longer detrimental to the health of the child, the child shall be immunized according to this subchapter.

(b) Religious exemption. Children need not be immunized if the parent, guardian or emancipated child objects in writing to the immunization on religious grounds or on the basis of a strong moral or ethical conviction similar to a religious belief.
